

Graduate Studies in Behavioral Health Program

College of Public Health
Florida Mental Health Institute

*Register now for the 2009
Fall Semester*

About the program

The Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute & the College of Public Health jointly offer graduate level courses in both the masters and doctoral programs with a focus in behavioral health services.

Course Offerings for Fall Semester of 2009 are:

■ Epidemiology of Mental Disorders

PHC 6542/MHS 6900 • Mondays 5:15-8:00 P.M.
Becker

■ Adv. Research Methods in Public & Behavioral Health

PHC 7935 • Mondays 2:00-4:45 P.M.
Massey

■ Legal Issues in Behavioral Health

PHC 6934/MHS 6900 • Wednesdays 5:15-8:00 P.M.
Van Dorn

■ Children's Mental Health Services

PHC 6544/MHS 6900 • Thursdays 5:15-8:00 P.M.
Armstrong & Dollard

■ Community-Based Prevention in Behavioral Health

HSC 6552/MHS 6900 • (Distance Learning)
Levin & Hanson

■ Cultural Competency in Children's Mental Health

PHC 6240/MHS 6900 • (Distance Learning)
Hernandez & Nesman

For More Information

Bruce Lubotsky Levin, DrPH, MPH
levin@fmhi.usf.edu or blevin@health.usf.edu
813-974-6400

